Sir,

The foregoing application was filed on August 17, 2001 along with the filing fee for a large entity ($710). A copy of the Transmittal letter, the Fee Transmittal and the check that accompanied the application are attached. At the time of filing, the undersigned attorney who filed the application believed that the assignees were large entities. The undersigned has now verified that the assignees qualify as small entities under U.S. rules. The large entity fee of $710 was thus paid by actual mistake and in excess of the amount required ($355).

Please refund the undersigned in the amount of the excess payment ($355) with a check made out to the undersigned attorney's firm, "ipsolon llp." Please do not credit this amount of overpayment to our firm's deposit account.

We appreciate your assistance. Please contact the undersigned by telephone if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Douglas D. Hancock
